

John Moissidis, MD

John A. Moissidis, MD, is the medical director of Athens Allergy and Immunology, a state-of-the-art Allergy, Asthma and Immunology Center in Athens, Greece. He has received his medical training in Pediatrics at the Schneider Children's Hospital, Long Island Jewish Medical Center in New York, and Fellowship training in Allergy and Clinical Immunology at the Louisiana State University in Shreveport, Louisiana, USA.

He holds medical certificates of both the American Board of Allergy/Immunology and the American Board of Pediatrics. He is a Scientific Associate at the University of Athens Medical School, 1st Department of Paediatrics. He holds a medical license to practice in the USA as well as in Switzerland. In addition to his MD degree, John also holds an MBA from the Hellenic Open University.

He received the Governors International Community Service Award 2004 from the American College of Chest Physicians, for operating a medical clinic for indigent and uninsured patients at the Respiratory Diseases Community Service Project in Northwest Louisiana.

John has served as a medical consultant to the American Community Schools in Athens and the municipality of Kifissia, a northern suburb of Athens. He is the owner of Eye Level Athens, an international premium enrichment after hours educational center, where students learn critical thinking Mathematics, English and Chinese.